Red wine

- |   | Glass        | Bottle        |
|---|--------------|---------------|
| 8. MERLOT/GRENACHE, "Vignes de l'Eglise", Languedoc, FranceGreat entry level wine, spicy yet smooth and quaffable   | £4.50 | £15.90 |
| 9. "GOATS do ROAM", Fairview, Western Cape, South AfricaThe name is a pun on Cotes du Rhone, and this excellent New World blend is in that style but at a sensible price.A blend of Shiraz Grenache Mourvedre and other Typically Rhone grapes   |              | £17.95 |
| 10. MONTEPULCIANO d'ABRUZZO, "Farnese", Abruzzo, ItalyPossibly the ultimate quaffing wine from Italy's Adriatic coast. Purple, full bodied, satisfying, lovely. Biodynamic  |              | £18.90 |
| 11. MALBEC, "Amalaya", Salta, ArgentinaBrilliant wine from vineyards at 1,800 metres. Intense and powerful, yet very pure and clean, and satisfying to drink. A little Tannat and Petit Verdot in the blend makes this more complex than most Malbecs |              | £21.00 |
| 12. VALPOLICELLA, "Allegrini", Veneto, ItalyModern Valpolicella is very far removed from the substandard offerings of earlier years and this serial prize winner is excellent, with sweet dark fruit on the palate and a lingering delicate finish    |              | £21.90 |
| 13. SHIRAZ, "Jester"(Frank Mitolo), McLaren Vale, AustraliaWe are confident in saying that this is one of the best New World Shiraz money can buy. Deep colour, Cocoa and herbal aromas, mouthfilling palate of ripe soft fruit, very long finish     |              | £23.50 |

Rose wine

- |  | Glass        | Bottle        |
|--|--------------|---------------|
| 14. SYRAH Rose, "Vignes de l'Eglise, Languedoc, FranceA deep pink rose in the classic Languedoc style. This is very good wineAnd higher quality than most of its type, being of decent body and ripe red fruit flavour. Excellent | £4.50 | £15.90 |
| 15. PINOT GRIGIO Rose, "Ponte Pietra", Veneto, ItalyA wine of a smoothness complexity and sophistication that seriously outweighs its price  |              | £18.50 |
